

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Ben Lombardi
Communications Manager
Phone: 216.292.1941
Email: Ben.Lombardi@BeachwoodOhio.com

City of Beachwood Economic Development Director Cathy Bieterman Honored with Team NEO Award

Beachwood, Ohio (5/13/25)— The City of Beachwood is proud to announce that Economic Development Director Cathy Bieterman has been named the 2025 Team NEO Regional Economic Development Champion Award recipient. The honor was presented during the annual NEO Rise Event on May 7, recognizing regional leaders' outstanding contributions to economic development across Team NEO's 14-county Northeast Ohio footprint.

This prestigious award recognizes Bieterman's visionary leadership and the transformative impact of her work in Beachwood. Her efforts have helped attract major businesses such as Millennium Control Systems and MasterBrand Cabinets to the city, further solidifying Beachwood's reputation as a hub for innovation and growth. Team NEO CEO Matt Dolan presented the award, highlighting the city's strategic use of development tools and its commitment to fostering a thriving business climate.

"Receiving this award is a tremendous honor," said Bieterman. "It truly inspires me to think more creatively and continue to move forward profoundly as we shape our city's future. Our department remains deeply committed to fulfilling the objectives set forth by our community stakeholders through the City's Master Plan and Economic Development Action Plan. This recognition bolsters the importance of that mission and the momentum we are building together."

Mayor Justin Berns, who attended the NEO Rise Event alongside other city representatives, praised Bieterman's leadership and the city's development efforts.

"Cathy's leadership has been instrumental in making Beachwood a destination for innovation and investment," said Mayor Berns. "This award is not only a celebration of her accomplishments but reinforces the vision and dedication of the city's economic development strategy."

The Team NEO Regional Economic Development Champion Award is one of the most coveted recognitions in Northeast Ohio's economic development community, reflecting excellence among a competitive field of regional leaders. The City of Beachwood congratulates Cathy Bieterman on this well-deserved honor and looks forward to continued growth and innovation under her guidance.

###