CITY APPOINTS NEW BUILDING COMMISSIONER

(BEACHWOOD, OHIO – October 2, 2023) – The City of Beachwood is pleased to announce the promotion of Brian Roenigk (pronounced: rennick) to the role of Building Commissioner. Since November 2022, he has served as a building inspector in Beachwood. Brian has worked in construction for more than 39 years and has 17 years of Building Department experience, including serving as the Assistant Building Commissioner for the City of Strongsville until 2022. He officially started this role October 2nd.

His previous employment involves longtime service in other local municipalities' building departments, including the City of Avon Lake, the City of North Ridgeville, Lorain County and the City of Westlake. Brian has earned the following certifications: Chief Building Official, Building Inspector, Electrical Safety Inspector, Plumbing Inspector and Residential Building Official.

He has two daughters, one of whom works in Beachwood with the Emily Program which addresses eating disorders, and the other is writing her dissertation in psychology. Both attended Ohio University. As a side pursuit, he operates a small business building guitars on weekends. Also, he was born in Iceland, and he has a five-pound Chihuahua, Daisy.

Bill Griswold will continue working as a Beachwood Building Commissioner until the end of 2023.
