FIRE DEPARTMENT ADDS NEW MEMBERS

(BEACHWOOD, OHIO –February 12, 2024) – The City of Beachwood recently welcomed two new members to the fire department. Quentin Brown joined after serving as a full-time firefighter for the Cleveland Division of Fire since 2018, where he also served on the SWAT team as a SWAT medic. Zach Tisdale, who will serve as a firefighter/paramedic, previously worked as a part-time firefighter for the Richfield Fire Department and recently completed paramedic training.

Fire Chief Steven Holtzman says he is confident in their abilities and how they will meld with the department. “These men are joining a tight-knit, courageous group that’s dedicated to keeping our community safe.”

Mayor Justin Berns welcomes this great addition to the Department. “Their prior experience will undoubtedly facilitate a seamless transition into a vital role within the department.”
